Vici Kid Shoes.

Fairies are "shod with light," but

VICI KID

wearers are shod with lightness. The marvel is that kid so fine and soft can be so tough and durable and wet-proof. Robert H. Fordecker alone has the secret of Vici Kid, and of Vici Dressing and Vici Polish.

During the week we have a ladies' maid teaching at the store the right way to dress shoes, and giving valuable hints as to the care of them. Those who learn the lesson we teach get greater satisfaction and double wear from their shoes.

The Fire Committee.
The council committee on fire department met last night and audited bills aggregating about $380. The specifications to be prepared by City Engineer White for the new East End hose house were not ready, but will be discussed at another meeting of the committee to be held to-morrow evening. Work on the foundation by the Glenside Construction Company is proceeding at a satisfactory rate.

A Feast of Good Things.
The membership of the First and Second Christian churches meet this evening in the lecture room of the First Christian church, to enjoy a feast of good things. The choir of the two churches have combined for the occasion, and prepared a very interesting programme of music, which will be interspersed with labors. The ladies will serve light refreshments, for which there will be no charge. The churches are thoroughly alive, and have in contemplation great things for the future.

Funeral of John McGowan.
The funeral of John McGowan, of Sistersville, formerly of Wheeling, who died Sunday at the North Wheeling hospital, will occur from the hospital this morning at 10 o'clock. The services will be conducted by Father Harris, of the Cathedral. Many Sistersville Elks will attend, as will Wheeling lodge No. 25, B. P. O. E., which met last night to make the necessary arrangements. The pallbearers will be Sistersville Elks: Messrs. W. P. Doyle, James Hall, Ed. Delton, Daniel Daley, T. C. McManus and John Rits. The interment will be at Mt. Calvary cemetery.

A Fine Concert.
The concert by the Bostonia Sextette Club, at the Opera House, next Monday evening, will be a genuine treat for music lovers. A New York exchange contains the following comment of the club's work: "Their concerted efforts betoken much labor, the shading is remarkably effective, and the precision of their tempos very marked. There was also a oneness about the rendering of their numbers, which, as well as being pleasing to the listeners, was remarkable for its accuracy. Words are inadequate to express the excellence of their ensemble work. The audience was enthusiastic in its applause."

THE Beabout Club will give a dance every Saturday night.

INCORPORATION

Of the National Tin Plate Company
Took Place Yesterday.

CAPITAL STOCK $9,000,000

Authorized, and $900 Subscribed.
The Company Remains to be Financed—Local Gentlemen Interested Could Not be Seen Last Evening.
Some Conjectures as to the Scope of the Enterprise Hazarded.

The long expected incorporation of the National Tin Plate Company has taken place. The papers were issued yesterday at Charleston. The authorized capital is $9,000,000. The incorporators are State Senator N. E. Whitaker and W. H. Rogers, of Wheeling; J. C. McDowell, N. E. Fustan, C. A. Dally, A. B. Dally, C. S. Lewis and W. E. Wilson, Pittsburgh, Pa. The objects of the company, as stated in the charter, include mining, smelting and working iron and ore, coal, limestone and other materials; producing oil and gas; manufacturing iron, steel, tin and other metals in various forms, and buying, selling and dealing in all such metals and minerals, and conducting a general mining and manufacturing business. The subscribed capital is $900. It is said the company will compete with the American Tin Plate Company, using the new Rogers process, which was recently given a successful trial at the Whitaker iron works in this city.

An effort was made last night to see Senator Whitaker, one of the two incorporators of this city, but he could not be seen.

As was stated in the Intelligencer several days ago, the company is not yet financed, and the enterprise is still in an incipient stage, with a subscribed capital of $900.

Among the incorporators are several gentlemen connected with the Wheeling Natural Gas Company, and it is significant that the company's charter not only describes the objects to be iron and tin plate manufacture, but "producing oil and gas." What this means cannot be learned at this time. It may, in fact, mean nothing; or it might mean amalgamation of interests by the Whitaker Iron Works, Wheeling Natural Gas Company and other enterprises.

FELL TO THE GROUND

Did the Case of Alleged Buncoling
Against Water Street Men.

Yesterday morning, in Justice Rogers' court, the preliminary hearing in the case brought against Goldstroom, Myers and Kennedy by Frank Long, who alleged that he had been robbed of $450 at Goldstroom's place on Water street, last Saturday night, occurred, and resulted in the discharge of the accused men.

Long had retained Attorney W. P. Robinson. Before the hearing, Long told his story to the lawyer, and claimed that he had received the money from Pennsylvania through the Adams Express. Mr. Robinson didn't like the looks of things, and investigated on his own account, resulting in the discovery that Long had lied—no money came for him through the express company named, or through any other doing business in Wheeling. In addition, the man had offered Mr. Robinson "half of all we get" in the case, and this, of course, aroused his suspicions. Finally Mr. Robinson withdrew from the case, which soon collapsed when it was aired in court. Captain Dovenor and Mr. Boyce represented the defendants, who were honorably discharged.

Evangelist Randall is complaining of lack of support for his work, and he makes a pathetic appeal for aid. He says he is without money, even for the necessities of life, and as he is advanced in years, he feels the need of money for nourishment. He appeals especially to the church people for assistance.

Rev. Martin W. Buck, pastor of the First Baptist church, denies that he refused to accept a call to a Paterson, N. J., church, and says he hadn't contemplated severing his connection with his congregation, as stated in an evening paper.
